

Availability

Open-AuditT uses a model that does not require tight coupling of the application, web and database components.

Availability can be increased using industry standard toolsets such as a front end Apache proxy and MySQL replication.