Export

Open-AudIT enables you to easily export your information to csv, xml or json.

With the click of a button export some or all of your data into a CSV for Excel, a JSON or XML document for processing or importing into another program. You can filter your data before export, or just export everything. Select specific sections of one or more devices. Any way you want it, Open-AudIT can export it.